Against the Storm Foundation's Annual Cornhole for a Cause to be held Sunday, June 29 at Transit Valley Country Club

Proceeds to benefit foundation-supported organizations and projects

AMHERST, N.Y., June 2, 2025 – The Against the Storm Foundation's fifth annual Cornhole for a Cause will be held Sunday, June 29 from noon to 6 p.m. at Transit Valley Country Club in East Amherst. Proceeds from the event will benefit foundation-supported organizations and projects.

There will be both competitive and recreational brackets with an entry cost of $120 for a two-person team. Supporters who do not want to participate in the tournament can pay $60 to attend and cheer on the competitors. There will be a cookout for all participants and attendees along with beer and seltzers, raffles, prizes, and live music featuring members of The Kensingtons.

Event sponsors currently include Empire Custom Cabinets & Countertops and Lippes Mathias LLP.

Over the past three years the foundation has provided $30,000 to Mental Health Advocates of WNY to support the organization's Best Emotional Skills Training (BEST) program, providing classroom-based learning to help students Pre-K through K in the Cheektowaga District develop healthy social and emotional skills.

The foundation has also donated nearly $60,000 to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society in previous years in support of the LLS Western New York Travel Pediatric and Young Adult Financial Assistance Fund, the Light the Night Walk and the Man/Woman of the Year event.

For additional information or to purchase tickets, please contact Justin Andreozzi, a member of the Against the Storm Foundation's Board of Directors and the event chairperson, at 716-803-3040 or jja@andreozzibluestein.com. Tickets can also be purchased directly online at the foundation's website <https://againstthestorm.org/cornhole-for-a-cause/>.
